PROJECT TITLE

HANDBOOK OF SURVEILLANCE EQUIPMENT AND TECHNIQUES

PROJECT REQUIREMENT

Provide a handbook listing all OC available surveillance equipment and include a commentary on modifications, requisitioning and techniques on maintenance and operations.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The Office of Communications is responsible to provide two-way voice communications for surveillance operations. In support of this responsibility, OC-E has both stocked and sent to the field various transmitters and receivers for pedestrian, vehicle and base station usage. This handbook will explain the flexibility of use of the various equipments, subdividing them into pedestrian, vehicle and base station. It will list the modifications and have a complete description of each transmitter, receiver and all accessories for ease of identification and requisitioning. The personnel of TSD, OCI, and FBI will be contacted for "state of the art" information and OC-T will lend assistance in preparing the OPERATION section. OC-S will be invited to include a section on Security and Voice Codes.
